“ We are sad to hear of Barney’s passing. He was a kind man and one of the best neighbors that anyone could wish for. We will always remember his smile the many times we ran into him as he volunteered at Maryview Hospital.

“ Ruth: I was so sorry to hear of Barney's passing. I've known you both since First Pres days, and the joy you both brought through music has been cherished by both congregations. I'm sorry I won't be able to attend his service at SAPC this weekend (we'll be out of town). You're both in my prayers. Deborah Wyld

“ It is with deep sadness and sorrow that I send my condolences to the Nawyn family. Barney was a veteran, a talented woodworker, witty and a kind gentleman. He will surely be missed by all that knew him.
