As you go thrju your grieving process I would like to leave you with a scripture at Revelations 21:3,4 where God promises to do away with death. I hope this helped. Sincerely Roxanne.

“ Delores was one of the sweetest people I know. She came in every week to get her hair done at Hair Country and always had a smile on her face and a kind word to say in spite of her health challenges. She will be greatly missed!

“ To know Mrs. Sealey was to love her. She was determined, kind, thoughtful. Though she had many of her own struggles, she never complained and always had a great attitude. I am so thankful for the time I had with her.

“ Dear Elizabeth, the very first image that comes to mind is that your mother was a Proverbs woman. She clothed herself in strength and dignity and she laughed without fear of the future. On behalf of our entire family, we send our love and condolences for the untimely passing of your mother. She had God's assurance of her heavenly destination which gives peace at this time. With Love, Bob, Mary, Joseph, and Bernadette Holt
