“ I remember when I was 18 and Davey was 3. His Mom (Betty), Dad (Ted), brother (Rick), and Davey were living in Lakeland Apartments, Norfolk Virginia. So I babysat the two boys one night. Davey and I got to playing. He would slap me if I laughed at him, and when I acted as if he hurt me. He would pet me. Was so cute. He never hurt me so we played the game for quite some time. Has always stuck in my mind.

Another time Ted was driving the family back to West Virginia in a 1958 Ford during a snow storm. The vehicle would start to sway if he started going too fast. Davey remarked. “ Hey we’re doing the cha cha.”

I enjoyed our hunting trip on top of Hanky Mountain in George Washington National Forest. I never seen anyone that could pack such a small trailer with so much. We had a good time. These are just a few of my good memories.

We will all miss him, but we can take comfort in knowing he is with his Lord. No pain. Just peace and joy.

“ Davey was a good man, he was so funny and helped me with my van more than once. He called me Tater, LOL. He had a kind heart and I will always think of him with fond memories.
