

Julia F. Spencer

June 11, 2020

Julia Farish Spencer, (101) of Portsmouth passed away peacefully on Thursday June 11, 2020. Julia, also known as Jule, was the widow of C. Baxter Spencer.

Mrs. Spencer was born Oxford, North Carolina, but moved to Raleigh where she graduated from Peace College. In 1947 she and her husband moved to Virginia. She held membership in Monumental United Methodist Church, The Forum, and Cedar Point Country Club.

She is predeceased by her husband, parents, brother, and her extended family of in-laws. Her survivors include her daughter Lynn Williamson Spencer and her family; grandchildren Laura Esau Wilson and Catherine Esau Callahan; great-grandchildren Erica Farish Garner, Charles Anthony Wilson, Julia Grace Wilson and Rachel Elisabeth Callahan; great-great-granddaughter Elizabeth Farish Garner; daughter Julia Spencer and her family; granddaughters Meredith and Melanie; great-granddaughters Olivia and Eliza.

Jule was a woman of great beauty, gratitude, and grace. She lived her life dedicated to her family, encouraging them to have faith and courage.

A private memorial service was held after her passing. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to The American Cancer Society, P.O. Box 22718, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73123.

Please cite on the check memo line, "Donated for National Research, In Memory of Julia Farish Spencer." Although Jule did not have cancer, she supported their research program because it affects so many lives. You may also call 1-800-227-2345 to donate.

“ My most beloved Mother...my friend.my confidant, my buddy, my girl. I will love you and miss you for the rest of my life. I will look forward to the time we can be together once again. Until I see you again, know that a day will never pass that I will not think of you and remember your strength and kindness. I love you, Mother...Lynn
