

Norma S. Morgan

October 6, 2019

Norma S. Morgan of Chesapeake, Virginia, passed away Sunday, October 6, 2019. After high school graduation, she worked at Norfolk Southern, and established an outstanding career in the U.S. Government civil service in Naval Intelligence at Naval Station, Norfolk, Virginia. Upon the birth of her children, she chose to focus her life on her home and family in Chesapeake, Virginia. Norma and her husband, Jim, spent much of their time over the years restoring her father's ancestral home in Moyock, North Carolina. Their combination of unique talents and sense of adventure have helped to continue a family farm legacy that has existed since the late 1600's to be passed to the future generations. Norma was also a member of Memorial Spiritualist Church in Norfolk, and a member of the Order of Eastern Star.

Norma was predeceased by her parents Charles C. and Chloa W. Sanderson. She was also predeceased by her brother, Charles T. Sanderson, and sister, Rosa Lee Lowe. She was the widow of James Edward Morgan, Sr. and is survived by her children, Glenn S. Morgan and his wife Sharon, Gale M. Allen and her husband Jake; her step-children, Betty G. Manning and her husband, Reubin, James E. Morgan, Jr. and his wife, Barbara; several grandchildren and great grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.

A celebration of her life will be held at 4 pm Wednesday at Loving Funeral Home with visitation to follow. The burial will be private.

Comments

“ Norma, I remember all the good times we had to-gather at the lodge and our home. We had so much fun playing games with you and Jim. You will truly be missed and blessed in our house send our love from your earthly home to your new home with Jesus. Mable, Pat, Lin, Jim & Cheryl

Mable Bell - October 09, 2019 at 11:32 PM

“ Norma was so sweet, always so friendly. She really was a very special person indeed. She was the real deal. The devotion shown to their mother by her children, Gail & Glenn, said it all. I feel so honored to have got to know this wonderful family. May she Rest In Peace.

Laurie Schmitt - October 09, 2019 at 10:26 PM