Dwayne Aaron Short, 44, of Portsmouth, Virginia passed away too soon on October 30, 2024, surrounded by his family. He was the eldest child of Dwayne Markclay Short and Claudia Lynn Mickley Short. Aaron was a 1998 graduate of Woodrow Wilson High School, where he made many lifelong friends. He grew up playing basketball, baseball, and golf and spent many years coaching kids at Wilson Little League. As a young adult he married Michelle Pearson and though they parted ways, they remained close. Aaron was valued for his hard work. He was a dedicated employee who rarely took a day off, starting his career working for his dad and uncles, he went on to be known as "Boss Man", working for Meeks Disposal for many years. Most recently, Aaron was a guiding light in helping his mom fight against cancer. In his spare time, he enjoyed watching sports and spending time with his Cane Corso, Guido. He will forever be missed by those that love him and will always be in our hearts.

The family will receive friends at Loving Funeral Home, Tuesday, November 12, 2024, from 6-7:30.

“ I am going to do my best to make sense of the words that have been in my head for weeks now...

From his loyalty to his teams, like the Redskins and the Orioles—to the quiet care he always carried for those around him, Aaron was a one-of-a-kind spirit. He was sometimes grouchy, sure—he wouldn't deny that. But beneath that grouchy exterior was an undercover sweetheart, someone who would do anything for his friends and family, even if he pretended to grumble about it.

Aaron was my best friend for a very long time. We shared so many memories, laughter, and inside jokes that I'll carry with me forever, and he enriched my life in ways I can never fully express.

And though I say goodbye today, I know he's not alone and neither am I. Somewhere, he's meeting Marley and Oscar again, probably giving them treats, just like he would here.

So I remember Aaron for his loyalty, his big heart, his love of the game, and yes, even his grouchy moments. He lived life fully, loved deeply, and leaves us all with memories that will stay with us forever. Thank you, Aaron, for all that you were and all that you've given. Give Heaven some Hell!

“ I offer my heartfelt condolences to Aaron's family and friends. I pray for you will be comforted as your hearts heal. 🙏
I knew Aaron back when he coached my boys at Wilson Little League. They all liked him and he wasn't that much older than some of the boys. I think that's what was so admirable! He and Coach Harrell even coached the Mets at the State Tournament. I'm so thankful for the time and knowledge he shared with the boys on his teams. Thanks, Aaron, and God Bless You. 🙏🙏🙏

“ I am Aaron's aunt. I'll never forget when Aaron was born, my parents were on cloud nine, he was the first grand baby, They were so in love instantly, and so was the whole family.
Even though our hearts are broken I am so thankful to know that Aaron knew Christ as his personal Savior and one day we will be reunited in heaven.
~ until we meet again.
