“ Al was certainly a character and a good friend. When we patrolled the streets of Portsmouth, we would reminisce about our "youth" growing up in Massachusetts. He still had that unique sense of humor during our days together with the school system. My sincerest condolences to his family and his many friends. Albert Booth was one of a kind the kind you will never forget.

*With respect,

“ I always think of that crazy laugh al had. I remember me and Al riding police motors and a dog charge out from between parked cars and It startled me but this was, very funny to Al, of course everything was funny to Al! I cranked that throttle wide open and I was a block away and could still hear Al laughing. Those real cold mornings we'd flip a coin to see who'd pay for the coffee and I believe Al always won! Al was a good cop and could really ride that Harley![of course that's just my two cents]..

“ Al Booth Sr. and I graduated together after receiving basic training with the Portsmouth Police Department, and I left the department one year after he left. I remember Al as an exceptionally kind and very well mannered person and dear friend, a friend with a very friendly and contagious smile when ever he chose to smile. He was so much a good friend, as to always be willing to provide and devote his best efforts towards assisting his fellow police officers, the police department, and who so ever else he may have found in need. Now that Al has left this earthly place, and his earthly body, I am sure his friends and family will deeply and sorrowfully miss him. I, therefore would like to extend my deepest condolence to them, especially his family, and remind them that " To be absent from the body can also mean to be present with the Lord God almighty" and that " Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal". May God bless you, one and all.

“ I remember Al very well, he worked with my dad on the police dept (Steve Clark) and I had a husband who wouldn't stay out of jail. Wonderful, I know..lol Al showed up at my house one morning to take the now ex hubby to jail again and I was cooking breakfast. I meet Al at the door with a spatula and told him he wants taking my hubby to jail til they both had breakfast. He sat right there ate his pancakes then off to the jail they went. I LOVED AL, I could call him and he was right there, no matter what, He was a great man and will be truly, truly, missed. Sleep well my friend until we meet again.

“ I walked the beat with Al in 67 and 68. We retired together in 92. He was a great man and Police Officer. It is always sad when we lose a brother officer. My prayers and condolences are truly with his family and love ones, but I know he is in a better place with the Angels. He will truly be missed by everyone who knew him.

“ I remember Al way back to when I was about six years old (early 70's). He would occasionally come over the house to visit my parents and let me sit on his police motorcycle. Fast forward a bunch of years and we worked together on the same shift. How awesome is that?

I remember Al from my days of owning older Corvettes. I somehow met Al and then it was if I had known him all of my life. I saw him not to long ago and the same smile on his face was there. Rest in Peace old friend.
