

Alice Doyle

January 9, 2024

Alice Bohon Doyle, age 93 passed away on 1/9/2024 in Portsmouth, VA and was the daughter of Ethel Bohon and Lewis Coleman Bohon. She was born in Roanoke, VA and raised in Franklin, Co, VA. She was a graduate of Andrew Lewis High School in Salem, VA. She went to business school in Roanoke. She worked for Seaboard Railroad Portsmouth, Public School System and Tidewater Community College as an executive secretary.

Alice was predeceased by her husband of 69 years, David Doyle and her son, Marshal Doyle, her siblings Sara Slayton, Ayres Bohon and Earl Bohon. She is survived by her daughter Anne Doyle Hauer (David); two granddaughters, Beverly Elizabeth Howard (Matt), and Lauren Paige Barr (Majeed) sister-in-law, Norma Doyle and 8 nieces and nephews.

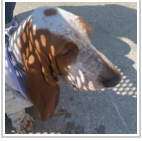

Alice was a charter member of St. Andrew Lutheran Church in Portsmouth, VA and a member of Hope Evangelical Lutheran Church in Citrus Springs Fl. She was an avid gardener, bridge player and Sunday School Teacher.

Alice will be interred with her husband at Sherwood Memorial Gardens in Salem, VA at a later date. Her husband's military honors will be performed at that time.

Donations may be made to Jude Children's Research Hospital or Hope

Evangelical Church in her honor in lieu of flowers.

Tribute Wall

“ I miss you mom ”

Anne Hauer - February 24, 2025 at 01:29 AM