

Alice Holderfield Yost

March 15, 2010

Alice Holderfield Yost, 80, went to be with the Lord Monday March 15, 2010. She was born in Petersburg, Va., and her family moved to Portsmouth when she was nine months of age. Portsmouth was where she spent her remaining years. Alice was a member of First Baptist Church Norfolk, and a former secretary for Jackson Memorial Baptist Church for 21 years. After her retirement she volunteered for Edmark Hospice for Children for several years. She loved being out in her yard and was an avid Roserian.

She is survived by her husband of 59 years, Bernard H. Yost; daughter, Lu Ann Yost Brady and her husband Ron of Baltimore, and two granddogs, Rocky and Olive; two sisters-in-law, Ann Q. Holderfield and Claudia Holderfield; many nieces and nephews.

A funeral will be held at 11 a.m. Friday in First Baptist Church Norfolk 312 Kempsville Road, Norfolk, VA 23502 by the Rev. Dick Baker. The burial will be at 2 p.m. Friday at Olive Branch Cemetery, Portsmouth. The family will receive friends in Loving Funeral Home, Churchland Chapel, Thursday from 7 to 8 p.m. Memorial contributions may be made to Edmark Hospice for Children. 516 London Street Portsmouth, VA 23704

“ I only learned of the death of Alice after reading the death of Bernie. They both were are great influence in my life as a Christian. I loved them both dearly and was sorry when they were no longer in my life as a young Adult. My memories of my youth at Jackson Memorial remain most fond and I will never forget the role they both played in helping me grow as a young person. Their faith and work in the church was always to be admired. LuAnn I am so sorry for your lost and pray God's in your Life. Fondly, Barbara Taylor###imported-begin###Barbara ###imported-end##
