“ My condolences to all those who suffer with Mrs. Cook's passing.

She was a loving mother, generous grandmother, and a kind and cherished member of our family.

Celebrate her! Be thankful to her! She asked little of us - and gave fully of herself. Our experience of her leaves us all better, kinder and more joyful. She will stay within our hearts and memories.

“ I can't say it any better than Cyndi already did... but want to express my appreciation for all the years of laughter, tears, hugs, advice, encouraging words & well-deserved scoldings. Thank you for being my Mom. You always unselfishly gave of yourself to everyone who knew you. Your strength, dedication & heart of gold has touched so many lives. I will always love, miss & be inspired by you.

“ Sue was my childhood mother , for she gave me guidance and support when I didn't have it. She is whom I told all to and she understood. She knew when to be tough and when to just be an open ear. She brought me back when I was close to a thousand miles away. Thank you Sue for the time you took and the risk you took for me. For I am forever grateful. You will be forever missed , loved and carried close to my heart. Till we meet again through the gates of heaven - Love Julie##imported-begin##Julie Watson Cox##imported-end##

“ For thirty years you have been my mother-in-law, my teacher, and my friend.

Today the sun was shining brightly but for me the sun was dark, the sky was gray, the rain was falling, and my heart was broken.

Farewell my friend, I love you.
