“ Sorry to hear of your Mom's passing, from what I read in the previous messages she was a very loved and caring woman. I know that her daughter carries those qualities also.

Our lives are very blessed when we have had the love and care of good parents. I know that your faith will sustain you through these hard times.

Thinking of you and your family

“ Tom,
My deepest sympathies go out to you and the rest of your family. Ahola will be greatly missed. She was a true Woodmen; loving, caring and kind-hearted. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

I will be contacting you soon.

Be strong, have faith and God Bless,

“ Sorry I am unable to attend. Somebody has to watch over Brank and Leota while Juanita is away.

I really wish I could reach out to you, talk with you, be with you during this sad time. Cathy may be able to visit this weekend.###imported-begin##John B. Proffitt###imported-end##
