

Anne Henkel Cutchin

January 27, 1915 - July 14, 2006

Anne Henkel Cutchin, 91, passed away on Friday, July 14, 2006. She was a native of Portsmouth and a graduate of Woodrow Wilson High school. Ms. Cutchin enjoyed a successful career in the Civil Service and retired from Norfolk Naval Shipyard as a Supervisor of the Supply Department. She also enjoyed traveling and was an avid animal activist. Ms. Cutchin was instrumental in the founding of the local Humane Society as well as a long time member of the Monumental United Methodist Church in Portsmouth. Ms. Cutchin is survived by her brother, James A. Henkel and his wife Beverly of Portsmouth; Nephew, Robert A. Henkel and his wife Barbara of Blacksburg, VA; Two cousins, Charles Eastman of Delaware and Arthur Eastman and his wife Emma of Pennsylvania. Ms. Cutchin was predeceased by her loving uncle, Judge Robert R. Beaton and his wife Mercedes of Portsmouth.

A graveside service will be held on Thursday July 20 at 10:00 AM in Olive Branch Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorial contributions be made to the Monumental United Methodist Church, Portsmouth.

Tribute Wall

“ We are saddened by the loss of your Sister.
Our Sympathy to you and your family.

Bettie and Jimmie Jones##imported-begin##Bettie Jones##imported-end##

July 20, 2006 at 12:00 AM