“ I am so sorry to see that we have lost one amazing lady. Sue & AL were long time customers of our insurance agency. We adored them both and she always made us smile. She will always continue to do that every time we think of her. Rest well lady.

“ I met Sue about 7 years ago when my father moved to The Chesapeake. He was having a tough time adjusting to living away from the home he and mother had shared for over 50 years after her death. Although he knew it truly was the best option for him. Sue welcomed my Dad into “the group “ and he soon became a part of the “Sue Taylor fan club”! I in turn was quick to become a member as well. It wasn’t long that my weekly visits to my Dad also became weekly visits with Sue. Although there was 30 year difference in our ages she soon became one of my nearest and dearest friends❤️I will miss our weekly conversations about travel, interior decorating, friendships, our families and sometimes a little gossip about the goings on at The Chesapeake 😊. My heart is truly broken at the loss of one of the kindest and sweetest people I have ever had the privilege to call my friend. Sue had a constant smile on her face and always a kind word for everyone she came in contact with. She truly was Miss Chesapeake and her loss will surely be felt by everyone for a long long time. My love and prayers go out to her family at this sad time of a great loss. Much love from Cindy Blanks-Shearin (Wayne Hudgins’ daughter)
