“ All of you who loved Audrey knew her to be a very special human being, blessed with kindness and gentleness and generosity of spirit for everyone she met. She had great faith, and that faith along with the love and support of all her family, especially her husband Davey gave her courage in her struggle with cancer. I am grateful to have met her, and I am remembering her and her family in my thoughts and prayers. May memories bring you all comfort and peace until we all meet again where there is no pain, and where all of us will breathe easily. Judy Mears###imported-begin##Judy Mears###imported-end##

“ *My Dear Audrey,
You were more than just a patient to me , you were my sweet little flower. It was a pleasure making you my last patient to see in the evening because you made all of my hard days worth it. I will miss you more then you will ever know but god needed you more. Spring is coming so he needed to make sure that all of his best flowers were available to welcome in the new season. So as you add your sweet smell to the garden of heaven, I will think of you often and wait for the sweet smell of spring to come.*

“ I remember sitting across from Audrey in the 3rd grade at Ryan. She was a great friend to make me laugh. After elementary school, we spent time with her best friend Marjorie Sides. Together, the three of us often had fun doing things with Job's Daughters activites. Carolynn, I will be praying for you. She was a wonderful daughter and a great friend. ##imported-begin##Terri Maddox Bolt##imported-end##

“ Dearest Carolyn, Don't be afraid or reluctant to lean on us for anything and at anytime. I know you're relieved but it's for the quiet and alone times when family and friends can be a blessing. I thank God Audry and you are part of our lives and now that a window in Heaven has been opened, don't be slow to call on the Lord for what you need. Love Willie and Martha.##imported-begin##Willard Phelps##imported-end##
