“ Steve and I shared a lot of good memories with Myrtle and Billy through the Clown Unit of the Khedive Center. Billy was a great clown and was such a sweet gentleman with all the ladies and especially his love Myrtle. He always had a smile and was always willing to help anyone do anything. I know he will be missed! What a wonderful angel he will be!##imported-begin##Steve & Judy Smith##imported-end##

“ *Memories of long ago:
Laughing with Brad as his dad railed at the ump at the Tides games at Frank D.Lawrence stadium.
Cheering Mr.Crim and my dad playing church softball, always running out those infield hits and chasing down those flyballs.
Remembering Mr.Crim bustin' it installing carpet, always striving for that perfect job.
We don't recognize role models as kids, but as I grow older I am thankful for men I've met who've influenced my work ethic and lust for life and Mr. Billy Crim certainly resides near the top of both of those lists for me.##imported-begin##Robbie Steen##imported-end##*
