

Barbara Inez Smith

July 1, 2007

Barbara Inez Smith of Colonial Lane passed away on July 1, 2007. She was embraced in love, and surrounded by her family.

Barbara was born and raised in her early years in Richmond, Virginia. After moving to the Tidewater area, she attended Churchland High School and graduated from Woodrow Wilson High School.

She worked as a Technical Librarian for Virginia Chemicals, which later became Hoechst Celanese. She retired after over 23 years service with the company.

She was a proud member of the Beta Lambda Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi and received her yellow rose symbolizing 50 years of membership this past April.

The family would like to thank the medical professionals who supported her care, with special thanks to Dr. Charles Lisner for his compassion and dedication.

A graveside funeral service will be held at 10:00 a.m. Friday in Meadowbrook

Memorial Gardens by Rev. W. Thomas Wood. The family will receive friends in Loving Funeral Home, Churchland Chapel Thursday from 7-8 p.m.
