“ To our dear Betty. Have worked with her for 20 years at W.M. Stone & Co. It seems just yesterday she was there, and I can still feel her now. Many times I would tell her she was the only person I knew that could put up with us all with a smile, and even say she may be mad with a smile. Will miss her dearly.###imported-begin###Gayle Caldwell###imported-end##

“ Lon:

On behalf of the entire Office of Legislative Affairs we want to send you our sincere condolences on your mother's passing. Although it may be an inextricable part of life, it nevertheless gives us pain and sorrow, and leaves an emptiness with which we must cope. We wish you well in coping with your grief, and want you to know we will welcome you back at NASA whenever you are ready.

“ Bonnie Forehand Frink:

Your mother was beautiful. And though I didn't know her very well, she was your mother...and I understand the loss. My mother and father are gone...and my sister died July 2005. Hold on tight to the memories, because the good times count for a lifetime. Know that my heart goes out to you and I trust you will find comfort and peace during this time of grief. God loves you, Bonnie, and your family. God bless you...
