“ Dear Penny and Brian,

You don't know me, but my family and I lived on Westcott Road from 1990 - 2003 and we loved your dad. We first met when he would be out walking Tech. He'd stop and chat - so kind and thoughtful. My boys, Zach and Jacob, got very involved in Little League and he and my husband would talk about baseball and coaching. He always asked about their games and even came to a couple. When my daughter, Maggie, was born your parents bought her a gift. We would sometimes stroll her and walk with Mr. Veal, then go in and say hi to Audrey.

He always spoke so proudly of Penny and Brian. Penny and her horses and Brian and school. He showed off pictures of Olivia when she was born.

He touched our lives in a special way and I am honored to have known him.

May your memories bring you comfort.

*Sincerely,
