Billy Redmon was a man that enjoyed life and was a man of a unending number of jokes that entertained many. I have been blessed to have known him and worked with him for many years in the military. When you needed help he was first in line. To his family, remember him and all the good he did in this life.

“ Billy was a rascal, as our old friend, Roby Martin once said," Billy either likes you or he does not. There was no middle ground with him." I count my good fortune to be one that Billy liked. During our time in the National Guard we traveled together to many camps, posts and stations We always worked hard and played even harder. I will miss you old friend.##imported-begin##Dick Gray##imported-end##
