

Brenda Halstead-Peavy

November 6, 2025

Brenda Halstead-Peavy, 71, went to be with the Lord on November 6, 2025. A native of Portsmouth, she was preceded in death by her husband, Roy Edwin “Skip” Peavy Jr.; her parents, Ruth L. Halstead and Howard W. Halstead Sr.; and her brother, Howard W. Halstead Jr.

Brenda retired from EVMS after 26 years of service as a referral coordinator. She loved fishing with her brother, Howdy, and was a huge supporter of horses, especially supporting her niece Ashlea at her shows and the young riders at Lakeside Farm.

Brenda is survived by two sisters, Doris H. Jones and Mari-An H. Charlton (Bruce); a brother, Lonnie Halstead (Patty); 2 nieces, Ashlea Charlton Meeks (Kyle), and Heather Halstead; 3 nephews, Dustin Charlton (Tasha), Logan Charlton, and Cory Halstead; 3 great nephews, Kash, Banx, and Crew.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Sunday, December 7, 2025, from 3 pm-5 pm at the Charlton/Meeks home, 1832 Cotton Farm Lane, Suffolk, VA 23432

In place of flowers please consider donating to Colby’s Crew Rescue, P.O. Box 6992, Charlottesville, VA 22947 or online <https://colbyscrewrescue.org>.

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

DEC 7. 3:00 PM - 5:00 PM (ET)

Charlton/Meeks home
1832 Cotton Farm Lane
Suffolk, VA 23432

Tribute Wall

PS

“ Thinking of you all and sending much love. I know your sweet sister is resting in the arms of Jesus and rejoicing with our family in heaven receiving her into the fold. Love, Cousin Patsy

Patsy Steverson - November 13, 2025 at 11:14 AM

JG

“ Brenda was truly one of a kind with a heart so big and a spirit so genuine. She had such love for my family, always bringing laughter and light every time I saw her. She was like a mother to us on the farm, always present, always watching over everything and everyone. I'll miss seeing her in the stands, cheering Kali and Martina on with that same warmth and pride she showed in everything she did.
You will forever be missed, Brenda.

Jenni Gray - November 13, 2025 at 06:09 AM

Brenda was truly one of a kind with a heart so big and a spirit so genuine. She had such love for my family, always bringing laughter and light every time I saw her. She was like a mother to us on the farm, always present, always watching over everything and everyone. I'll miss seeing her in the stands, cheering Kali and Martina on with that same warmth and pride she showed in everything she did.
You will forever be missed, Brenda.

Jenni Gray - November 13, 2025 at 06:11 AM

HM

“ Rest in peace Brenda. Heaven has gained another angel. Your memory will last a lifetime among the friends who were fortunate enough to call you friend. I'll miss you but promise to see you on the other side. Prayers and sincere condolences to the family. ❤️🙏👼

Houston Moore - November 12, 2025 at 09:42 PM