

Bruce Early Saunders

August 24, 2024

Bruce Early Saunders, 67, of Williamsburg, Virginia, passed away peacefully on Monday, August 26, 2024. Born in Portsmouth, Virginia, Bruce was the beloved son of the late Frank and Norma Saunders.

A proud 1979 graduate of Virginia Tech, Bruce dedicated forty-four years of his professional life to Sales Systems Ltd., where he served as Sales Manager and most recently as President of Operations. He was respected and admired for his work ethic, integrity, and leadership. His commitment to his career was matched only by his devotion to his family.

Bruce was a loving husband, father, and brother who found his greatest joy in family time. A devoted Baltimore Orioles and Green Bay Packers fan, he cherished attending games with loved ones. His passion for steamed crabs reflected his love for gathering with family and friends, creating lasting memories.

Bruce is survived by his devoted wife of forty-three years, Beverly Vaughan Saunders; his two sons, Casey Saunders and his wife Kayla, and Brady Saunders and his wife Margaret. He is also survived by his brother Barry Saunders and his wife Pam, and his sisters Lisa Nelson, and Lori Mounie and her husband Tim.

Bruce leaves behind several extended family members and lifelong friends who will forever cherish his memory.

The service location has changed.

A visitation will be held at 4:00 p.m. to 4:50 pm, followed by a memorial service at 5:00 p.m., on Friday, August 30, 2024. All services will take place at Churchland Baptist Church 3031 Churchland Blvd. Chesapeake, VA 23321

“ Randy and I worked with Bruce for many years (me for 15 and him for 36). He was a great asset to the company and will be sorely missed. When Randy and I got married Bruce invited us to Baltimore for the best crabs we’ve ever had. Our thoughts are with the whole Saunders family.
