

Camilla Futrell Wise

December 16, 2024

Camilla Futrell Wise passed away on December 16, 2024, in Chesapeake, Virginia. A native of Northampton County, North Carolina, Camilla graduated from Rich Square High School and attended East Carolina University. She loved living in the Portsmouth, Virginia, area and enjoyed spending time with her friends and family, always making them a priority. Camilla found great joy in her work with the elderly in the health care system in Portsmouth. She also delighted in game night with her friends, collecting seashells, and tying the most beautiful bows on presents.

Camilla is survived by her devoted son, Bill Sawyer (Katie); her granddaughter, Daphne; her sister, Bettye Hamill; and her (high school and current) boyfriend, Bob Willoughby; as well as an amazing group of friends, neighbors, and cousins. She was preceded in death by her husband, Chuck Wise, and her son, Chris Sawyer.

A service for family and friends will be held in the new year. Please have a gin and tonic in her honor before then. Memorial donations may be made in her name at www.t2t.org, for the Tunnel To Towers Foundation, a charity that provides housing assistance to Gold Star and First Responder families.

Tribute Wall

“ Camilla was my stepmother. She was married to my father Chuck for three decades. I was always happy to see her and visit. I moved to Ecuador nearly two decades ago, and could only visit rarely after moving there. But we spoke on the phone regularly. I will miss her just as much as I miss my Dad. She was a wonderful, down to earth, and honest person. I hope to remain in contact with her son, as time goes on.

Charlie Wise - March 17, 2025 at 07:47 PM

MR

“ Camilla was a longtime friend of sixty years. She will be missed. She was funny and loved her family. I feel like I know her sister though I have never met her. I will miss her. May she rest in peace.

Mancy Reynolds - December 24, 2024 at 11:06 AM