“ I am Carlos' first cousin. A few thoughts: -- When his mother died, Aunt Laura and Uncle Clifton took him until Uncle Carlos married Aunt Lillie Mae; Mama and Daddy took Leonoa for the same time. -- He wired our house in Swan Quarter for electricity in 1937 or 1938, when I was a baby. -- He liked ice cream so much; when I last saw him at our house after Roy and Anna Marie Cahoon's 50th wedding anniversary, He said he had to go slow on it.
He was a good man

“ Granddaddy,

You were the best! I enjoyed the memories of working on the red Chevette for 4 hours to fix the alternator ... and brakes, etc. For the ones of you throwing a ball and retrieving with your namesake granddog. Love you,
