

Carmen Gonzales Varela

November 20, 1920 - August 4, 2008

Carmen G. Varela

VA Beach - Carmen Gonzales Varela, born November 20, 1920 in Blanco, New Mexico went to be with the Lord on Aug. 4, 2008. She was predeceased by her husband, Tom Varela; son, J. Donald Varela and granddaughter, Suzanne Varela Hastings.

Carmen is survived by her son's widow, Joyce Varela from Currituck, NC. Her children, Kathleen Amsler and her husband, Wyman from Waycross, GA, Tom Varela and his wife, Ingrid from Portsmouth, Virginia, Anita Lopez, from VA Beach, Virginia, Robert Varela and his wife, Teresa from Glendale, Arizona, Geno Varela and his wife, Lisa from Richmond, Virginia; 18 grandchildren, Michele Norman, Greg Varela, Shawn Connors, Charmaine Turbitt, Mike Lopez, Amber Cox, Nikki Matthews, TJ Varela, Marc Lopez, Paul Varela, Joe Varela, Jay Varela, Sam Varela, Jon Varela, Jamie Unrau, Chas Madeira, Kyle Madeira and Jessica Varela; and 35 great-grandchildren.

In addition Carmen is survived by a sister, Frances Galiegos from Blanco, New Mexico; three brothers, Amador Gonzales and his wife, Irene, Leonard Gonzales and his wife, Alice all from Blanco, New Mexico, Ben Gonzales and his wife, Jenny of Gilroy, California. She is also survived by numerous nephews and nieces, who loved her very much.

Carmen was a faithful member of Kempsville Presbyterian Church. Her ministry of prayer and encouragement gave her numerous spiritual children and grandchildren. She was known to all as either Mom or Grandma. Her service at CBN as a prayer counselor led her to a ministry of intercessor for anyone who asked. In addition she faithfully supported many Mexican and Native American orphans through finances and prayer. Never one to judge, Carmen gladly accepted everyone for who they were. Although Mom will be missed we all know that one day we will all be with her again in Heaven. Her desire would be that all would come to know Jesus and share eternity with him.

A funeral service to celebrate her life will be held at 1:00 p.m. Thursday in Kempsville Presbyterian Church with burial in Horton Veteran Cemetery in Suffolk at 9:00a.m. Friday. The family will receive friends in Loving Funeral Home Churchland Chapel, Portsmouth on Wednesday from 6-8p.m. In honor of one of her favorite charities the family suggests memorial contributions to the Rancho Los Amigos 4444 Edgar Park Ave. El Paso, TX 79904 and condolences may be made online at www.lovingfuneralhome.com

“ Grandma,
There are no words i can say to you. Nothing is good enough. I have never loved anyone more in my entire life and i dont think i ever will. I feel like there is a big hole in me now. I often pick up my phone to call you but then remember that i cant. But dont worry grandma because i will still talk to you even though i cant hear your voice. I already know exactly what you will say back to me. You will smile, laugh and say "oh honey you sound just like me, and thats not good at all." Well grandma you have no choice. God gifted me with your stubbornness and i will do anything to be exactly like you. It would be the greatest honor i could ever have. I love you grandma and i miss you more than you will ever know. Thank you for everything grandma..talk to you tomorrow##imported-begin##Jessica Varela##imported-end##

“ One of my earliest memories is all the hoopla that went on around grandma and grandpa Gonzales's house Blanco for that matter getting ready for Aunt Carmen and the Varela clan to come visit...every visit was always exciting and fun. “ Dearest Grandma...

I know you will never read this as there is no pain, no sorrow, and no mourning in heaven, but I write this to pay tribute to my amazing friend and grandmother. To call you a grandmother seems insufficient--because you were so much more. I take comfort in knowing how much you love me and the fact that you know how much I love you. I thank God everyday that He brought me into your family and that He thought I was special enough to be a part of your life. That is an enormous honor. I reflect on the times that we would just sit there and talk and I hang on to those memories. I choose not to say goodbye, but I will see you very soon and that will be the greatest family reunion the Varela family will ever have. I love you SO much Grandma and I could never say THANK YOU enough..... Save me a house next to yours! See you soon.
