

Carol V. Foster

January 18, 2020

Carol V. Foster, 78, she maintained her beautiful smile and sense of humor until she went to be with the Lord on January 18, 2020 while surrounded by her loving family. She was born in Portsmouth Virginia to the late Eula and Virgil Hammett. Carol is survived by her children, Edward Joyner and Lori “Crissy” and her husband Vernon Hanbury; grandchildren Tiffany Faw, Alley Joyner, LeighAnn and her husband Brandon Flores, and Brandon Hanbury; three great grandchildren; two loving sisters, Anne Ratliff and Betty Allen; and many nieces and nephews.

Carol was predeceased by her husband of 22 years, Lawrence Lee Foster; son Larry Joyner and daughter Dawn Joyner. She was loved dearly by all who knew her, including neighbors, retired co-workers, and her church family. A visitation will be held at Loving Funeral Home on January 26, 2020 at 1pm with a memorial service to follow at 2pm.

The family extends a special thanks and appreciation to VA oncology and all its staff, and Heartland Hospice for the loving care they gave. In lieu of flowers please make donations to any cancer foundation.

“ Carol was always so loving and smiling. I'll never forget how many times me and my sister sandy would go to her house and just spend the day. There were times we snuck out to do this. She was truly loved and will be missed terribly. Rest in piece my sweet aunt.
