“ *Dearest Caroline & Family; This unexpected & very sad loss of your grandmother is so hard to understand or even believe but we have to put our faith in God's master plan & know that Carol is now with Ronnie, the love of her life, & she has put you with a loving, kind & devoted Aunt & family. Her's was such an act of Love & desire for you to have a warm & caring family helping you to grow into a lovely, confident & successful young woman. Carol did her job well & she is now at peace. Our love & prayers are with you always, Pat

“ To Caroline,

Your mother is a special woman and no one can take her place, You'll find a piece of mind when you remember her smiling face.

Your mother is an angel now she flies high above the rest, and in your hearts always and forever she will be the best.

*She has earned her wings and it's time for her to fly,
I know it hurts no one is ever ready to say good-bye.*

*She will be your guardian angel through the rest of your life,
Helping lead you on the path between what' wrong and right.*

*Your mother loves you so very much and her love will always remain true,
Please don't ever think for a second that your mother will forget you.*

*She will be there through your good times, she will be there through your bad,
She'll be there when you are happy, she'll be there when your sad.*

*Your mother has become and angel now, it is her time to fly,
And you will never know how bad it hurt me to watch you have to say good-bye.*

*Love, Uncle Mark##imported-begin##Mark Seeley##imported-

“ There is nothing anyone can say or do to console your pain. Life gives each of us challenges; Carol would want all to remember her smile, laughter and the caring person that she was. She loved life.

Carol will be missed by all which loves her; as a mother, grandmother, sister, friend and Beta Sigma Phi Sister , Carol will always be in our memories and in our hearts.

Over 25 years ago Carol and I began our journey as a Beta Sigma Phi. We roomed together on our first VA State BSP Convention, our friendship and sister-hood began. Even when it had been some time since we had last seen or talked to each other, it was like only yesterday. She really understood and respected me as I am, as I did her. Carol, I will miss you, but one day we will all be together. Say hi to Rodney and Kathy for me. Love you, Thy Sister,

“ I only just met Carol this year when I joined Laureate Beta Nu, but in the short time I got to know her she showed me only great kindness and made me feel welcome right from the start of joining the chapter. I wish I had met her years ago and had become sisters then. She was a blessing in my life. I will really miss her beautiful smile and caring ways.###imported-begin##Carolyn S.

“ Carol, a sorority sister of mine, always stated, "If you can't say something nice, then don't say anything at all." She was a real trooper--she did not give up, even with a handicapped right hand from a stroke at age 3. She forged on, did not complain, and exhibited a positive attitude toward life. She smiled frequently, shared a joke or two and kept on going. No "cry baby" attitude from her. No way!

May God comfort her family, extended family and friends. Rejoice in that she has joined her husband and parents in Heaven.
