

Carolyn Hill

August 15, 2019

Edith Carolyn Hill, age 83, entered into eternal life on August 15, 2019. She was born at Parish Memorial Hospital in Portsmouth, Virginia. She was the daughter of the late Edith and James Bunn. Carolyn was a 1954 graduate of Woodrow Wilson High School and a devoted member of Centenary United Methodist Church.

Carolyn attended Weaver Airline School in Kansas City, Missouri. After graduation, she worked with Eastern Airlines until her marriage to the love of her life, Mickey. They moved to Tokyo, Japan where they were stationed for three years. They returned to Portsmouth where they raised their two children. After they were grown, Carolyn worked for the Portsmouth Public School System as a library clerk in Churchland until her retirement. She then became a travel guide with Fun Tours for 14 years. She joined the Beazley Senior Center and served on the board of The Friends of The Portsmouth Naval Shipyard Museum. Carolyn's greatest happiness came from spending time with her family, church and friends. We will forever remember her laughter, loyalty, grace, devotion, strong will and compassion for others. Our world is a better place because of her, and she will be greatly missed.

Carolyn was predeceased by her sister Barbra G. Bunn. She will be held in loving memory by her husband, Gregory "Mickey" V. Hill, Sr.; son Gregory "Greg" V. Hill, Jr. and wife Sheryl; daughter Jacquelyn D. Hill; granddaughter

“ I have fond memories of the Bunn Family as neighbors on Charleston Ave. in Prentis Park. Carolyn and Bobbi were neat sisters who were always fun to be around. They were baby sitters for my younger siblings and Edith and Jimmy were favorites of my parents. My sincere condolences to the family.

“ One of my fondest memories of Carolyn was at a very early age, was her coming by at Christmas time and helping my mother wrap Christmas gifts, and playing marbles with my uncle James on the rug on the hall room floor. Carolyn always made this an event to look forward to and enjoyed by all. Our heartfelt condolences to Mickey, Greg, Jackie, and the entire family. Gene Bunn
