“ I've known Carolyn since we were girls about 10 years old. She has always been the nicest person. Though we didn't stay in contact over the years whenever I saw her she displayed the same warmth and friendliness. May Jehovah be with her family while she sleeps.##imported-begin##Toni Jordan##imported-end##

“ I met her at DePaul Hospital ED. She had the most warm smile and was very encouraging despite the fact she felt bad. She loved Jah God and his organization. She touched my heart with her courage the short time I got to know her. To the family, you are in my prayers. Sending you much love.##imported-begin##Sis. Angela King##imported-end##
