“ There are no words to express the impact and memories of Carolyn to my family. From the lunches at the bank where my parents met her to the countless family occasions that we celebrated to the fun camping trips made with hilarious adventures, and finally to the devoted friend she was when my mom was grief stricken and ill until her passing, she was right there, loving and giving! We will never forget her generosity and loving kindness to our family. We love you, Carolyn and are so happy that you are home with your family and friends in heaven! - Sue Hemmings-Palmateer
