

Cary Lee Harvey

January 25, 2008

Cary Lee Harvey, 37, of North St. went to be with the Lord January 25, 2008 after a year long battle with cancer. Lee was a server with Ruby Tuesday in Portsmouth. He leaves behind his beautiful daughter, Jordon Harvey and her mother, Anita Baay. He is also survived by his mother, Gail Branham Martin and husband Billy, his father, A.R. "Dickie" Harvey and wife Marylynn, two sisters, Amy Harvey and Bonnie Harvey, two nephews Shawn Harvey and Mason Meneses, a niece Ciara Meneses, several aunts, uncles and cousins.

Visitation will be at Loving Funeral Home, Churchland, Sunday, 2 to 4 pm. A funeral service will be held at Meadowbrook Memorial Gardens Mausoleum, Suffolk, Monday, 3:30 pm. After the service, family and friends are invited to meet at Sweethaven Baptist Church, Portsmouth, 5:00 pm for fellowship and refreshments.

In lieu of flower the family requests donations to the American Cancer Society by calling 1-800-227-2345 and specifying Colon cancer research.

“ Jordon, Anita, Gail & Dickie

I know I never met you guys but I have to tell you that Lee was a great person and friend. I have known him for 6 or 7 years. He helped he thru alot. I finally got the pleasure of meeting him last Easter. He touched my life and I will never forget him. Love Late and Sista were his famous lines he used when we spoke or I Med. There was never a time he didnt speak to me about Jordon. We tried to plan for him to come here in the summer of 08. I wanted to take him to NYC. Him and his comedy always made me laugh.

"Love Late Lee" My heart goes out to your family.

“ Gail and Dickie,

I am so sorry to hear about Cary. I remember holding him when he was a baby. I cannot imagine your sorrow. My love to you both.

Anita and Jordon,

Although I've never met you, please know that my prayers are with you and all your family members for your great loss.###imported-begin##Lynnette Hargrove Jenkins##imported-end##

“ I will miss all the good times I had with Lee both at Ruby Tuesday and during our off time. He was an awesome person to know and I know he is smiling down upon us all as he no longer suffers with pain. My condolences go out whole heartedly to his family and most of all his daughter Jordan, I can't imagine the grief she must have for her dad who she was his world. For everyone who's life he touched he is greatly missed and never forgotten, may he rest in peace and stay in our hearts always.##imported-begin##Shannon Hill##imported-end##

“ Dickie, I know you were a great and loving dad....you were always there for all of your family members..
You always put them 1 st above yourself...
That's what the great dads do...
You are in my thoughts as you go through the all of the many emotions of the loss of your son...

Stay safe

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to his family. I was truely sorry to find out about his passing this past weekend. I knew Lee back during high school days and thereafter, but have not seen him in quite awhile. He was truely a great guy, full of spunk and truely hilarious. He will be greatly missed, but not forgotten.##imported-begin##Kathee##imported-end##
