

Cecile Browne Adams

June 2, 2010

Cecile Browne Adams

Portsmouth- Cecile Browne Adams, 94 a life long resident of Portsmouth died peacefully on Wednesday June 2. She was born September 14, 1915, the daughter of the late Harry Bailey and Fannie Langhorne Browne. She was predeceased by her husband of 54 years, Charles Emette Adams III in 1994. Also preceding Mrs. Adams were her twin, Harry B. Browne and siblings Frances, Langhorne, Elizabeth, and Lisle. Mrs. Adams was member of Centenary United Methodist Church, a typist for Seaboard Railroad and was a past president of the Portsmouth Women's Club.

Mrs. Adams is survived by her New England family; nephews, Charles E. Adams, James P. Adams, Richard Ames Adams; nieces, Jeanette E. Biery and Mary Beth Bilotta. She is also survived by several local nieces and nephews.

A graveside service to celebrate her life will be held on Monday June 7th at 10:00 a.m. at Meadowbrook Memorial Gardens. She suggested memorial contributions be made to her church, Centenary United Methodist Church.