

Charles Anthony "Tony" Evans

November 13, 2014

Charles Anthony Evans, 69 died peacefully in his home with his daughters by his side on November 13th. He was the son of the late Lucy Mildred Stallings and Leon Calvin Evans and step son of the late Edward Warren Stallings. He was born and raised in Portsmouth VA, and is survived by his daughters Kimberly Evans Morrissey, Robin Evans, and Jill Evans Bunkley.

Charles, known as Tony to his friends and family, was his own kind of man. He was fun loving, the center of every party, loved music and to play the guitar and sing and wrote some of his own songs. Ten days prior to Tony's death, he lost the love of his life, his wife Terry Evans. Tony and Terry were high school sweethearts that reunited later in life, and they were the life of every party.

True to form, Tony specifically requested that he did not want a funeral. So there will be a party thrown in his honor to celebrate a life that he lived to the fullest, on Sunday November 16th at his home from 4:00 to 8:00.

On behalf of Tony's family, we are blessed and grateful for the support of Home Helpers out of Yorktown and Lisa Mickey for taking care such loving care of Tony, and his wife.

Tony The Tiger, self-professed hell raiser, on earth and now in heaven, will be missed dearly by all.

You can be with the love of your life again now.
