“ Dear Sharon,
So sorry to hear of Paul's passing. We still remember how entertaining he was at the CLARK reunion in Iowa when we were there. We are sad that he didnt get to have one more visit to Iowa. Please take care of yourself. We heard you fell & broke your hand so there is no need to write back. Just know that we are thinking of you & keeping you along with Paul in our prayers.
Love always,
Sharon & Mark Thomas

“ Dear Sharon,
My heart goes out to you and your family. Words of comfort are hard to find; they pale in comparison to the enormity of your profound loss. Paul was a thorough performer. He accomplished difficult tasks with a "can do spirit" while I served with him for two years aboard the USS Gordius. God's Blessings and my sincerest condolences,

“ I must have been four years old when Paul and my father pulled into the driveway towing a wooden car that Mr. Harold had made. It was big enough to fit several kids in and for the whole afternoon all of us rode around the block until dark. A couple of years ago I told him that story. He reminded me of Navy families coming and going and when there was a new family around he would pull that car out and before you knew it every kid on the block was running behind it. That thought is just plain cool. Paul and my Dad were Navy buddies. The places, stories, drinks, and laughs were seemingly endless. They were also men that “held their sand”. Fearless, if something is wrong you make it right sort of men. The kind of men I aspire to be. I’ve often told Paul’s stories and many of the jokes he had shared with me though out my life. Most of them, how should I say, were shockingly funny. I think I’m going to make a point of telling all of them tomorrow, he would approve I’m sure.##imported-begin##Peter Pittman##imported-end##
