“ Linda and I remember Charles fondly from his days in Fairfax VA. I served with him in the High Priests leadership. Charles was always loving and kind, and a man dedicated to serving his Lord through the Church. I am certain that he has been welcomed on the other side of the veil by his Lord and his wife Pat.

“ Charles Pixton was immensely trustworthy & likable. One of his roles was to launch the Centreville Branch in the Fairfax Stake. He tracked down every meeting hall in our area adequately sized to fit our congregation.

He made an arrangement to rent the Merhodist church on Sundays. When I accompanied him to meet the pastor, Reverend Parsons, President Pixton recited a long list of strict rules.

But when I was formally introduced to the reverend, he was "Bob" to President Pixton. Between the pastor & me, however, there was always a formal relationship, bound with strict rules.

Later when it was time to move to larger quarters, I asked him how we should proceed to get out of our lease with the Methodists.

President Pixton said, "Well, Bob meant to make a lease with me, but he never did. We just shook hands & agreed to continue informally."

Always people trusted him.

It was a pleasure to know the family & be involved as one of Julie's teachers.##imported-begin##Gerald Patten##imported-end##

“ We were saddened to hear of Brother Pixton's passing. We remember so fondly living in the Fairfax Ward with he and Pat, his leadership in the Stake Presidency, his outstanding role as a father and his devoted service in the Washington DC Temple we were priviledged to share. Our thoughts and prayers go out to his dear family and to Judith. Your lives have been an inspiration to us.##imported-begin##Vance and Nancy pace##imported-end##

“ Although Brother Pixton hasn't been in our ward for a long time, I will always remember how sweet he and Sister Pat Pixton were, what a loving family they had, and how much they loved the church. It's sad to lose someone like Brother Pixton, but I'm sure he's much happier now. The Pixton family is in my prayers.##imported-begin##Claudia Calissie##imported-end##
