“ I didn't know Steve. But I know his son Kamin. I also know the pain of a lost parent at a young age. Kamin, I know this is hard. I know it will be hard for days to come. But your father would want you to live your life and be happy. Chase your dreams. Love the Lord. Cherish your family. Laugh with friends. If the days get too hard and you want someone who has been there, I am always available. I don't care if it's 1 o'clock in the morning. I remember the tears.###imported-begin##Jessy###imported-end##

“ Kamin,
Your dad is so proud of the young man you have become. I remember being at the McCormicks and watching your dad watch you. He had such a look of pride and love in his eyes! You are an exceptional person, and your dad and Jay will continue to watch over you as you grow into a man. Remember this is not good-bye, it's just "see ya later"! We'll all be playing baseball and singing in heaven someday, with Jay and your dad!##imported-begin##Liz McCarty##imported-end##

“ We arrive on this planet, blind to the love and life that awaits us. We cry when we want something, or when we're tired, or when we're bored. We start off so helpless, and dependent on others. But soon, we learn to take care of ourselves, and seek our own happiness. We may think that Steve was taken away too early, that his quest for happiness was cut short, but the truth is that it was not. He got a chance, EVERY single day, to find happiness. And, he did. He didn't wait for retirement. He didn't wait until he won the lottery. He didn't wait until that perfect moment on that perfect day. He went to work, he talked to friends, he shared his love, and from all of this, happiness arrived each day. I am glad to have met Steve, and to have gotten a chance to help him find his happiness on a few of those days. I am Kamin's uncle and send my condolences to all of those who loved Steve, and miss him.##imported-begin##Clark A. Mahoney, Jr.##imported-end##

“ Steve gave me memories that will last a lifetime and there was no better experience for me than taking him to his first experience at Wrigley Field. Truly one of the most passionate and caring individuals I have ever known, there are not enough good things I can say, he has been an inspiration for me to continue to do what I do.

“ To Steve's Mother, I say you and Uncle CM did a wonderful thing raising Steve with the love and knowledge you gave him about our Lord Jesus Christ. I believe Uncle CM would have been very proud of how Steve turned out and the strength, faith & courage he showed facing his battle here on earth as bravely as David faced Goliath, with the faith of Meshack, Shadrack & Abednego when they were in the fire furnace and with the courage of Daniel in the Lion's den. Just a week before he left us to be with the Lord I got to talk to Steve and share some deep thoughts, feelings and appreciation with him. I loved Steve for his kindness, and the way he never judged me but he always took the time to tell me he loved me and most importantly..that GOD loves me. May his love of the Lord and his legacy forever live through his children. May our Father God bless and keep you all!##imported-begin##Patrice Barrett ##imported-end##

“ My family and I first met Steve when our son Ryan played for him on the Braves baseball team a couple years ago. We had the great pleasure of playing with on his team again the following season and then seeing him frequently this season. He had a gentle spirit and was great with the kids. And always had kind, encouraging words. We shared a love for baseball and a love for Jesus. I remember him going out of his way to get me tickets for the Easter play at his church one year. It was an honor to know him. God Bless Kamin, Christie and all his family.##imported-begin##Robyn Shavers##imported-end##

“ We were only acquaintances. Our paths would occasionally meet and when they did I would open my heart to you and you were caring enough to acknowledge me without judgment. You were very kind and would share very heart full. Everyone has something that they will be remembered for. Steve I will not forget your respect and honor of other people. You have no enemy with me and if you did you would have forgiven me. You are definitely one of the stars in the crown of our lord Jesus Christ. I am looking forward to the moment when our paths meet again.##imported-begin##stephen williams##imported-end##
