

Charles and William Verschoor

November 24, 2012

Charles Verschoor, June 25, 1943- April 16, 2009

William Verschoor, August 22, 1951 - November 1, 2012

Charles and William, sons of Grace and Leonard Verschoor, lived in Chesapeake, VA where Charles graduated from Deep Creek High School in 1961 and from Old Dominion University in 1965. He completed his PhD at the University of Miami and taught at Miami-Dade College for over 30 years. Since 1969, Charles served as guardian for his autistic brother, Willie, who lived in a group home in Miami and attended a workshop program. They are survived by a sister, Marcella Barnes, who lives in Vienna, VA.

A service honoring both brothers will be held at Loving Funeral Home Churchland Chapel on Dec. 1, at 2 p.m.

Tribute Wall

“ In deepest sorrow and with fond memories of the Verschoor family. You have my sincere sympathies.##imported-begin##David B. Crawford, MD##imported-end##

December 04, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ I remember Charles and William from childhood friendships in the early to mid-1950's. Michael Schrock lived nearby to the Verschoor family and we would all play together. William's struggle with Autism is over now. May they both rest in peace.##imported-begin##Joe Martin##imported-end##

November 27, 2012 at 12:00 AM