

Clarence Wallace

November 13, 2013 - November 13, 2013

Clarence Biggs Wallace, 83, went to be with the Lord on November 9, 2013. Clarence, known to many as "CB", was born to the late Polly and Freddy Wallace of North Carolina. After graduating from high school, CB joined the Army where he proudly served his country. After the Army, he went into Civil Service with the government retiring as a Ship Surveyor.

CB is survived by his wife of 63 years Janice Goodwin Wallace; three children, Linda Credle and husband Marvin, Teresa Kayton and husband Buddy, Allen C. Wallace and wife Cindy; eleven grandchildren; and sixteen great grandchildren. CB will be remembered by all who love him as a loving husband, father, uncle, friend and strong man of God. The family would like to express their gratitude for the excellent care and love given to CB, at Sentara Leigh, during the last two weeks of his life.

A funeral service will be held in Fairview Heights Baptist Church officiated by Rev. Paul Martin at 11 a.m. Wednesday with internment to follow at Olive Branch Cemetery. The family suggests memorial contributions to Fairview Heights Baptist Church, 4704 Deep Creek Blvd., Portsmouth, VA 23702 in his memory.

Tribute Wall

“ Allen, always good memories of your dad and family, my condolences to them and you at this time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Gilbert Smith##imported-end##

November 13, 2013 at 12:00 AM