

Curtis T. Drake

October 3, 2015

Curtis T. Drake, 58, died on Saturday October 3, 2015 after a short illness. He was a native of Portsmouth, a life-long Methodist; he spent his early years at Broad Street United Methodist Church and currently an active member of Aldersgate United Methodist Church where he sang in the choir.

Curtis was predeceased by his father, William R. Drake and his brother, William R. Drake, Jr. He is survived by his mother, Christine T. Drake; two nieces, Susanne Stephenson and her husband, Jonathan of Pennsylvania and Allison Drake of Portsmouth and two great-nieces.

A memorial service to celebrate his life will be held at 2 pm Thursday at Loving Funeral Home with burial to follow in Olive Branch Cemetery. The family suggest memorial contributions to Broad Street United Methodist Church or to Aldersgate United Methodist Church.

“ I met Curtis and his family when he was about 14-years-old. He was always very respectful, polite and witty. One had only to be in the presence of Curtis and his Mom to see the relationship they enjoyed. It would make one smile to hear the quiet banter that would go on between the two of them - always good-natured. Some years ago, I attended a birthday party at Olive Garden, given by Curtis for his Mother. He was the host with the most...so gracious and busy seeing to the needs of each and every guest. He will be sorely missed by all who had the opportunity to know him. Heartfelt sympathy to his beloved Mother, Christine. Christine, I know you are in the hearts and prayers of many, many people.
