“ I first remember meeting "Dill" as I would always know this beautiful young man as, at a "Pathfinder" game night hosted by my son in law and daughter, Marty and Andi Blackwelder. I stopped by to visit Andi and Marty, and there were a few young Coasties, gathered for this weekly game night. I remember Daniel was smiling and laughing when I got there, and every time I ever saw him after that, he ALWAYS had a smile on his face. I have four adult sons, Marty (Blackwelder), Fallon, Sean and Jacob. They all interacted with Daniel aka Dill... through online games, Skype, internet voice overs, and also when Daniel and Natalie would visit Marty and Andi's home for a holiday party or gathering, or one of the kids birthdays. My last memory of Daniel aka Dill, the last time I actually saw he and Natalie in person, was at some party or gathering at Marty and Andi's home. He and Natalie were sitting at the table in the Kitchen together, with Daniel squished in between my two grand kids and Natalie. Natalie didn't have much room, and was hanging off the bench seat a little, and I remember thinking "she must be tired of sitting on the edge" and laughing to myself. She was stuck to Daniel, as if to just want or need to be touching him in some way. Daniel was chatting with Marty across the table, and Natalie was looking up at myself and my daughter Andi, chatting with Andi. Even though they were engaged with others in conversation, by virtue of their bodies touching, side to side, they were sharing a connection without saying a word to each other. You could just know with certainty, being around these two young people, how much they loved each other.

I would often, on almost a daily basis, hear my son Sean, asking Daniel (Dill) to join him in a game, or just cutting up, laughing, or talking about in game "stuff".

Marty and Andi got stationed in Cape Canaveral a year ago, much to my great disappointment and sadness. After a few months in Florida, Marty and Andi told me they missed Virginia, and also that Daniel, and Natalie had moved back to Virginia to settle, and Marty was now going to come back to Virginia to continue his "bromance" with "Dill"! I was so excited to know they would be coming home. One of the big reasons for that decision was because of the close and endearing friendship between Daniel aka Dill and Marty. We are all heartbroken to know that such a beautiful life was taken far too soon, from this world, and from those who loved him so dearly. He will be missed by so many, including my family. I will always remember this beautiful young man as someone who was intelligent, compassionate, FUNNY! loving, and a great friend. Rest in peace, dear Daniel. My love and sympathy to his beautiful young wife Natalia, and also to his family. All of you helped shape Daniel aka Dill into the fine young man who touched our lives.

“ Daniel C, "Dan" Dill was a really nice, quiet, humble young man. His IT knowledge and skill were beyond reproach. He was a kind, caring and helpful person. He was instrumental in establishing Wifi in the office, so that everyone could enjoy their favorite video or song while at work. His Love of Country, Wife, Family and Philadelphia Eagles football is to be commended. When he came back from his Coast Guard mission to help rebuild Puerto Rico, the first thing out of his mouth was "How bout them Eagles". He was excited for his favorite team having a tremendous 2017 season. I sat beside Dan and would speak to him every morning, as he listened to music on his cell phone. Dan was always helpful when I approached him with an IT question. He would go out of his way to answer your IT question or get an answer quickly. The Coast Guard will miss a truly great person. From the NAIS and DGPS team we send our sincere and deepest condolences.

In the famous words of Dan on Monday mornings after a victorious Philadelphia win

“ What Stands out most to me as I reflect on Dan life is how positive he was. Every day he would come into work with a smile and was truly happy to be here. Two things shined most in Dan life his Wife and Eagles Football. Every Monday he would walk in with " how about them Eagles" then tell us about the weekend exploits he shared with Natalie. Dan was the true definition of a Coast Guard Men. I miss him greatly, but take comfort in knowing he is in a better place.
