“ I was sorry to hear of Darlene's passing, as well as that of her husband, Jimmy. Though not very much in contact in recent years I have known her my entire life. She always had an infectious laugh growing up and as a young pre-teen and teen she fell in love with Elvis. This was something that I think followed her throughout her life. As her cousin, on her father's side, I had many opportunities to be with her as we grew up. Once my family moved away from Portsmouth we did not see or hear from one another very often, though I would have liked to keep in touch more than we did. My condolences, along with those of my wife, go out to Mark and "Sissy" and their families in their loss. Bill Buckner
