

Deanna Niece

July 25, 2017

Deanna L. Niece, 38,

Please be in Prayer for Tena, Noah, and I. Our daughter and Mom Deanna Niece went home to be her savior Jesus Christ on Tue July 25, 2017. Our hearts are broken, but we will trust in thee Isa 26:3 Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.

Isa 26:4 Trust ye in the LORD for ever: for in the LORD JEHOVAH is everlasting strength: We loved and will miss her, but will see her again. She is preceded By her daughter Alexis, her grand parents Edward L Niece Sr., Betty E. Niece, Claude, and Clyde Davis. Her aunt Brenda N Muterspaugh, and great grand parents Robert and Myrtle Php1:21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. Psa 90:3 Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men. Psa 90:12 So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom. Psa 90:15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil. Psa 90:16 Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.

Psa 90:17 And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it. This was our nightly devotion on the 27th after we found out about her home going.

A memorial service will be held Friday Night, August 4th at 7:00 PM Wayside Baptist Church 712 Canal Drive, Chesapeake, VA 23323

“ I've known Deanna since the beginning of this year. I was her yoga teacher, and she looked forward to every class I could offer. She embraced being a new yogi bc she wanted to be a better version of herself.

She was always of service to others and never expected anything in return.

She had a generous and peaceful energy & was kind and unselfish. She always looked out for me, and showed compassion toward others. She had a calm and contagious spirit & was an amazing listener. I considered her a friend & i am a better person knowing her. I know for certain she is in a better place shining her light to those who need it. I miss her.

“ Ed & Tena, I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your "beloved" daughter, Deanna, & also your "dear" mother too, Noah, on July 25, 2017. May it bring you all peace & comfort to know you will see her again one day! I hope it will also bring you peace to know that you all are in my thoughts & prayers, as well as many others offering their prayers & support to your family at this time of sadness & sorrow...know that Jesus is walking right beside you & will help you get through the "sad" days ahead. Yes, she is gone, but never ever forgotten! God will give you all the strength & courage you need to meet the upcoming days ahead, as HE will never leave nor forsake us in our times of need. That is HIS promise to us....know you are so loved & will be kept in my prayers. I love you & wish I was able to make it up for the memorial service. Know I will be with you in thought, though.....May God bless you all...love you! Your Sister In Christ, Peggy L.Parker
