“ My sister, Debbie, was the most stubborn, independent, kind, caring and loving person that I have ever known. She would give you the very shirt off of her back, but had a hard time accepting help for herself. She loved animals more than anyone I have ever known and would cry her heart out over a dog getting hurt or dying, even in a movie. She was known for helping the Girl Scouts sell cookies and anyone else that needed her help. She always put herself before others. She had a great sense of humor, could make you laugh when you were feeling down and was well loved. I miss her so much. Jackie ”
