“ Meme I love you with all my heart❤️ I'm so glad that we have so many good memories. My heart breaks that I can no longer call you. We talked pretty much everyday and I just wish I can call you up right now. I wish you could've met your great grandchildren, they might not get to meet you but they will know who you were and I will tell them all the fun things we did together.. we all love you meme💕

When I worked with Denise in Cardiac Services at Maryview, all the girls came and helped with my wedding reception. But Denise was the one that helped me put on my veil! We were the 2 Denise's! She was the best and has the sweetest family! Always willing to help! She was a great comfort to her patients! She will be sadly missed! Denise Putland
