“ I was so sorry to hear about Denise's passing. Denise was a hard working lady who had a special gift of making sure her brides had the best for their wedding day. I worked at Tiffany's with Denise for several years and she was very talented at coordinating the Bridal Shows - she spent unlimited hours making sure the dresses and accessories were perfect for the walk down the runway. Denise enjoyed sharing stories about her husband, John. Her face would light up when she talked about him. Rest easy, Denise.
