“ It was late Winter 1990. I had the very good fortune to pick 7 year old Adam Cox in the blind draft to be a part of my T-Ball team. This was the beginning of a coaching partnership between Donnie and me marked by championships, winning seasons, great memories and friendship. Donnie's involvement, without question, contributed greatly to our teams successes. I also spent time with Donnie on the golf course. He not just loved golf, he was very good at it. Donnie will be greatly missed by his family and friends.

“ The Cox family are great neighbors. I'm sorry to hear about Donnie's passing. We will miss seeing him always raising his hand in a friendly manner while out in his yard, doing his yardwork. My prayers are with the Cox family at this time of sorrow. Sincerely and blessings always, Tammy.
