“ RIP Donnie... You were always a caring person with advice on any question a person may have. You loved and stood up for family...no matter who got pissed about it.. You had a great mom...and you always told her that...you always seemed to make the best of every situation..no matter how grim the situation was...you always made us laugh..and you always had time to joke with my wife (Donna) about her chicken legs...you were a good one... always a fighter..Rest my cousin... give hugs to my mom and Norma for me. Love you always 💕

“ Donnie, Thank you for being such a wonderful brother. You always helped your family from fixing computer or cable problems to babysitting your nieces and nephews. Everyone loves you so so much and there is a big hole in our hearts. Sorry you were dealt a bad hand most of your life, but your life was so full of love. Soon the whole family will be able to get together and celebrate your life. You are with Mommy and Daddy and your brother and sisters. I'm sure you are hanging with Tommy Rice your Dallas cowboy buddy. One day we will all be together again.
Love you my sweet brother❤️

“ Uncle Donnie, from the time I was a kid, you cracking your belt threatening to spank me, as an adult sending me memes, you never lost your sense of humor through all the trials. I will miss the random calls and conversations. It's your time to rest in peace. Love you.

“ It's been 1 week since you left us . My heart is broken and I am going to forever miss our phone conversations and text . I know God has you in his arms , he knew you were tired . You were the strongest person I know (besides our mommy) . You fought the hardest fight and had many obstacles in your way . Your gift of the kidney 33 years ago was a gift to your family as well . You brought joy and laughter to so many . I hope you realize the impact you made on my kids and my grandkids . They loved their uncle Donnie unconditionally . I am so glad that I was able to help you, whether it be picking up your prescriptions , bringing by groceries, bringing you lunch or taking you to the doctors, that time was special and I know you appreciated me. I am happy I got to bring you some ham and pecan pie Christmas Day and I am thankful that I got to spend New Years Day with you . I love you my sweet brother . You will forever be in my heart .💔💔💔

“ Donnie played a big part in raising me. He made me sit at the table until my food was gone. Made me write sentences like “I will not pencil pluck on the bus.” He would call most people to tell them happy birthday. He video taped a lot of occasions. Aside from grandma Norma, he was always at the center of family. He had a difficult life starting very young because of his health. He made the best of it though. He got picked on as an adult because he loved Dallas Cowboys. Jk. He was grouchy, but he was kind. I know he was tired of this life. But he stuck around and fought through every illness/issue, for his family. He will be missed. We love you uncle Donnie!

“ You will be missed so much!! We have shared so many memories! My every day ritual when I was young had you in it! From watching our shows together, to after school homework sessions, making me sit at the table until I finished all of my food, calling me stick stiggly and Chelsea Clinton, calling you to joke everytime the Cowboys lost, and so many other memories to list. As much as I thought you were hard on me, I do recognize all the discipline and structure you were trying to instill in me. You will always be in my heart and memories forever! Love you Donnie!

“ Our family has witnessed so much loss. You, my little buddy, is another hard one to swallow. I have always been close to you, but since losing mom, our sibling bond got stronger. I am going to miss you and your grouchy self so much. You fought a long and painful battle. Not sure which phrase I will miss the most, hearing you say hidey-hoe, calling me kid or too-di-loo. Love you and Rest In Paradise!!
