“ Donna,

I'm so sorry for the loss of your Dad. He was always one of the nicest (and the best looking) members of the family. I remember when he and your Mom were dating and I would peep out of the window to see if they were kissing! He was very patient with all of the young cousins back then. They even let a couple of us go for a ride with them once or twice. Even though I had not seen him in a long time, I'm sure he was a great guy. My heartfelt condolences.

“ I only knew your father through you, Donna. Thus I know he was a great man who will be greatly missed by his many friends and family. He has taken a piece of your heart with him. I wish for you to find some joy in the many wonderful memories you have with him. He was indeed fortunate to have such a loving daughter. 💕
