“ The following poem was composed by Tracy Donovan Holland immediately upon mama's passing and It was so lovely and spot on that I thought I would share it with you all:

MRS. LOVELL

In the midst of suffering, a calling becomes enlightenment,

A fearless princess becomes bewildered,

She continues her plight only to become more confused and frightened,

However, in battle she becomes tough.

Her laughter is seldom seen anymore and anger becomes her as she continues her fight.

The matronly body becomes increasingly frail, but she never lets on.

The fearless princess has surrendered to the weakness and only memories are left to those surrounding her ,

The memories of always giving and sacrificing for those she loved-never once regretting aloud her choices,

The nurturer of the family and roll model for all of her children including me to aspire.

*You will be missed by so many and we can only hope that you would be proud of those who grieve your loss now.###imported-
