

Douglas Alan Lewis

May 10, 2012

Douglas Alan Lewis, 50, ended his battle with cancer and went home to be with his Lord May 10, 2012, while surrounded by family. Douglas is survived by his wife of 28 years Barbara Michelle Lewis; son, Jason Alan Lewis and wife Jaala; daughter, Laura Elizabeth McCutcheon and husband Thomas, all of Chesapeake; grandchildren Peyton and Kinsley. He is also survived by his parents Aubrey Lee and Barbara Ann Lewis; three sisters, Cathy Hale and husband Gib; Susan Sutton and husband Mark; and Kim Browning; mother-in-law Barbara Corbett; sister-in-law Vicky and husband Sam Casteen; also numerous nieces and nephews. He was an employee of Dominion Power and a member and deacon of Temple Baptist Church.

The family would like to express a special thanks to the countless family, friends, and co-workers who prayed for and provided encouragement to Doug throughout his battle with cancer. We would also like to thank the dedicated health care professionals, which labored countless hours, for their care and compassion.

A funeral will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at Temple Baptist Church by Dr. James Rushing, Pastor Jerry Greco, and Pastor Jason Lewis, with burial in Churchland Baptist Church Cemetery. The family will receive friends at Loving Funeral Home Friday, May 11, from 6 to 7:30 p.m. In memory of Doug, donations can be made to the Temple Baptist Church building fund.
