The family would like to express a special thanks to the countless family, friends, and co-workers who prayed for and provided encouragement to Doug throughout his battle with cancer. We would also like to thank the dedicated health care professionals, which labored countless hours, for their care and compassion.

A funeral will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at Temple Baptist Church by Dr. James Rushing, Pastor Jerry Greco, and Pastor Jason Lewis, with burial in Churchland Baptist Church Cemetery. The family will receive friends at Loving Funeral Home Friday, May 11, from 6 to 7:30 p.m. In memory of Doug, donations can be made to the Temple Baptist Church building fund.

“ Doug, I'm so proud to be your Aunt Joan. You were a blessing to everyone God put in your path. And, you were blessed to have Christian parents that gave you the foundation you needed to fulfill God's Plan for your Life. We are all grateful that you chose that path. On this Father's Day, all of your family are thinking about you and miss you very much. Many people will be blessed by the Christian values you and Michelle have instilled in your children. That's quite a Legacy and a Lifetime tribute.##imported-begin##Joan Revis##imported-end##

“ Doug was a very good man, because he had a very good God! All could see that Doug lived out Nehemiah 8:10 "...the joy of the Lord is your strength"...even in difficult circumstances. His contagious smile, that was such a blessing here on earth, will be right at home in heaven! Our prayers and love are with his family.##imported-begin##Glenn and Marci Mongold##imported-end##

“ Dear Michelle, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis and Family,
Doug was a very remarkable, genuine and wonderful person! He always had a huge smile on his face and exuded much happiness and strength. His journey through his battle was truly an inspiration and reflection to his relationship with our Lord. What a powerful testimony of faith. Isaiah 41:10 Don't be afraid, for I am with you. Don't be discouraged, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you. I will hold you up with my victorious right hand. My deepest sympathy to you at this time. May God bless your family during this very difficult time of letting go for now. Our shared hope is that WE will all MEET AGAIN, on the other side, "IN HEAVEN"!

“ Doug always had a smile for everyone. I remember the day he first meet my grandson Kyle. My grandson held out his arms for Doug to hold him he did not want anyone else to hold him not even the ladies there. This was the first time either had seen the other. I could not beleive Kyle wanted Doug to hold him he even let Doug take him to see things without me. Kyle must have known that Doug was a great person for him to let him hold him and walk around with him. I know that I will miss Doug the most from Dominion. I visit there sometimes since I retired and always look forward to seeing Doug because he always brought a smile to everyone and was always glad to see you again. I will miss him whenever I go there from now on I always looked for him and that smile of his.##imported-begin##Brenda Kelly##imported-end##

“ My only regret is that I didn't get to know Doug better. He worked harder than anyone on the kitchen project...while battling his cancer. He was always cheerful and willing to give of himself to help someone else.
What a standup guy, he is ok now but he will really be missed down here.
My sincere condolences to his family.##imported-begin##Mike O'Neill##imported-end##

“ Doug was one of the nicest, upbeat, strongest and courageous individuals I had the privilege to know. Whenever he came into the office, he immediately brightened the day of all of us. He always told us about his family and how happy and proud he was of all of them. His face lit up when he talking about the grandchildren. His wonderful outlook throughout his illness was an inspiration. We will miss seeing him but know he is in a wonderful place with everlasting happiness.##imported-begin##Dr. David Graham##imported-end##

“ As I read through all these beautiful remembrances of Doug, I find myself nodding my head over and over again. Doug's infectious smile, love of his family, and love for his Heavenly Father shone brightly for all to witness. While I am glad his earthly suffering is over, I am so sorry for the void that I know his family will feel at his passing. I pray that you will be comforted in your time of grief and hold fast in knowing that Doug is now healed in the arms of his Savior.##imported-begin##Alan and Cindy Anderson##imported-end##

“ I have known Doug for 12 years now and can't say that I have met a greater example of what a Christian leader, father, and mentor should be. That he loves Jesus Christ above all was evident in every area of his life. It was a great blessing to have known him for the time I did and the example he left for his fellow Christians and family will not be forgotten. It is a joy to know that we will see him in Heaven some day.##imported-begin##Brandon Wilson##imported-end##

“Doug always had such an amazing spirit. He helped lead me to the Lord when I was in 2nd grade. He was always a very loving, paternal figure to me through out my younger years when I was over the house all the time with Laura. He had the most infectious smile and biggest heart. I am so deeply saddened by his untimely passing. Temple Baptist will never quite be the same for me without the promise of seeing his smile and getting one of his big ol' hugs! I rejoice in knowing I will see him again one day up in Heaven. To Michelle, Laura, and Jason - my whole heart is with you right now.##imported-begin##Lacey Satcher##imported-end##

“ May 10, 1863, one of my heroes died, Gen Thomas "Stonewall" Jackson. Today, 149 years to the day, another hero died. Doug's grace, God's grace, meant a lot to me as I watched him fulfill his duties and live his life, no doubt at times hurting, without complaining. Stonewall's last words were, "Let us now cross over the river and rest in the shade of the trees.". Rest now Doug, with that mighty band of God's heroes.##imported-begin##Jim Marriner##imported-end##
